

Jewellery brand launches bespoke collection

Gaddam Padmaja Reddy

Kalasha Fine Jewels, a prominent jewellery brand in Hyderabad, recently commemorated its sixth anniversary by inviting six accomplished women achievers as guests of honour. Justice Telaprolu Rajani, judge, National Company Law Tribunal, Bala Latha, IAS coach, Dr Manjula Anagani, gynecologist, Gaddam Padmaja Reddy, Kuchipudi dancer, M M Sreelekha, composer, playback singer and Mrunalini Rao added a dash of woman power to the proceedings with their presence. At the event, these women unveiled Kalasha's new handcrafted jewellery collection, named '6 Senses.' "We take pride in creating bespoke,

Abhishek Chanda and Sowmya Chanda

Justice Telaprolu Rajani and MM Sreelekha

Bala Latha

Dr Manjula Anagani

meaningful pieces for our customers, and '6 Senses' is a testament to the brand's commitment to excellence. The collection comprises exquisite diamond masterpieces in close and open setting, traditional gold jewellery, mesmerising south kundan jewels, royal Nizami collections, and Mughal era-inspired jadau collections. Each piece has been crafted with meticulous attention to detail to ensure the wearer stands out from the crowd," said Abhishek Chanda, Director of Kalasha Fine Jewels, expressing his excitement. He added, "We invite everyone to join us in this celebration and experience the uniqueness of our collections that awaken all six senses." "We invite everyone to join us in this celebration and experience the uniqueness of our collections that awaken all six senses."

Mrunalini Rao